

Australian Capital Territory Remuneration Tribunal

ACT Supreme Court – Travel Allowance for the Associate Judge

Determination 6 of 2017

made under the
Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995

ACCOMPANYING STATEMENT

Background

Under section 10 of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995 (the Act), the Remuneration Tribunal (the Tribunal) must inquire into and determine the remuneration, allowances and other entitlements to be paid to the holders of Judicial positions mentioned in Schedule 1 of the Act, including the Chief Justice of the ACT Supreme Court, the Associate Judge and Acting Judges. For the Chief Justice, this entitlement is in addition to their entitlements as a resident judge under the Supreme Court Act 1933.

The Attorney-General, Mr Gordon Ramsay MLA, wrote to the Tribunal on 14 March 2017 requesting that the Associate Judge's entitlements in relation to travel allowance be reviewed.

Decision

The Tribunal noted the travel allowance for the Associate Judge of the ACT Supreme Court should be consistent with other ACT Supreme Court Judges.

The Commonwealth Remuneration Tribunal determines such an allowance and those determinations change from time to time. The current determination is 2016/07.

This arrangement will be incorporated into the general determination for judicial positions in the ACT Supreme Court at the Tribunal's 2017 Spring review.

This Determination 6 of 2017 replaces and revokes clauses 4 and 5 of Determination 1 of 2017 (ACT Supreme Court Judicial Positions). Other clauses outlined in Determination 1 of 2017 still apply.
