Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995, section 9 (Inquiries about members of Legislative Assembly)

ACCOMPANYING STATEMENT

Background

Under section 9 of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995 (the Act) the Remuneration Tribunal (Tribunal) is required to inquire into, and determine, the salary, allowances and other entitlements for:

- the Chief Minister;
- the Deputy Chief Minister;
- other Ministers; and
- Members of the Legislative Assembly (Members) other than Ministers, including the Presiding Officer (known as the Speaker).

Section 9 of the Act, read in conjunction with section 73 of the Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Commonwealth), requires the Tribunal to determine the salary and allowances for the:

- Leader of the Opposition;
- Deputy Leader of the Opposition;
- Government Whip;
- Opposition Whip; and
- presiding member of a committee of the Legislative Assembly.

Considerations

The Tribunal called for submissions in January 2018 to support its annual Autumn review of Members' salary, allowances and other entitlements.

The Tribunal considered submissions along with a comprehensive briefing from Treasury officials on the prevailing economic circumstances for 2018.

The Tribunal also considered a submission received from the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly relating to clarifying the intent of the resettlement allowance.

This determination sets out the Tribunal's decisions following the 2018 Autumn review.

Decision

The Tribunal decided to increase Members' base remuneration by 2.5% from 1 July 2018.

the Assembly as determined by the Speaker. It does not include travel for party political purposes.

commercial accommodation includes a hotel, motel or serviced apartment.

office holder means the Chief Minister, Deputy Chief Minister, Minister or Presiding Officer, except where that term is used in the definition of Assembly business to refer to travel as an office holder of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association.

- 6.2 Travelling allowance covers the reasonable cost for travel outside of Canberra and is payable at the rates that correspond with the amounts set out in the relevant Australian Taxation Office Taxation Determination relating to reasonable travel and overtime meal allowance expense amounts for each income year, for:
- a) accommodation; and
 - b) meals; and

- a) it is appropriate and reasonable for the conduct of the official business for the person to stay in accommodation at the same location where a meeting is held, or nearby to where a meeting is held; or
 - b) it is appropriate and reasonable for the conduct of the official business for the person to stay in accommodation with other participants of a meeting; or

- 9.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the Tribunal determines that Members may combine incidental personal travel with official travel, provided there is no additional cost to the Territory. If the period of such incidental travel is greater than 40% of the period of official travel, a pro rata contribution must be made to the overall cost of the travel.
