

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

Statement 6 of 2009

Clerk of the Legislative Assembly

Background

Section 10 of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995 (the Act) requires the Remuneration Tribunal (Tribunal) to inquire into, and determine, the remuneration, allowances and other entitlements for the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly (the Clerk).

The Tribunal last reviewed remuneration, allowances and other entitlements for the Clerk in October 2008 and subsequently issued Determination 19 of 2008 in December 2008.

This latest review of full-time holders of public office, which sought submissions from interested parties, was notified in the press on 14 February 2009.

Tribunal Consideration

Remuneration

The Tribunal considered a range of material including submissions and economic data. In particular, the Tribunal noted the uncertainty reflected in economic indicators, including the trend decline in the labour price index. To some extent the economic and employment data was inconclusive.

The Tribunal noted increases in remuneration for administrative staff in the ACTPS and considered the general economic situation and comparative data on remuneration paid to office holders in other jurisdictions.

Because of these circumstances, the Tribunal has decided to determine an increase in remuneration that reflects a holding position. Accordingly, the remuneration for the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly is increased by approximately 1.5% over the previous determination.

Relocation Allowance

The Tribunal decided to increase the entitlement to $47,046.
