

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

Statement 6 of 2007

Full-Time Holders of Public Office

Background

Section 10 of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995 (the Act) requires the Tribunal to inquire into, and determine, the remuneration, allowances and other entitlements to holders of the positions mentioned in Schedule 1 of the Act or notified in writing to the Tribunal by the Chief Minister for the purposes of this section. This includes holders of certain full-time public offices.

The Tribunal last reviewed remuneration, allowances and other entitlements for full-time holders of public office in April 2006 and subsequently issued Determination Number 196 dated 31 May 2006.

This latest review, which sought submissions from interested parties, was notified in the press on 10 February 2007.

Tribunal Consideration

Submissions were received from interested parties.

Remuneration

The Tribunal's view is that remuneration for full-time holders of public office should generally be aligned with ACT Public Service executive positions that are evaluated at the same job levels. The Tribunal noted, however, that in this regard it would also be examining comparative remuneration issues as a factor in future reviews.

Consistent with this approach, the Tribunal decided that there should be a 4.0% increase in remuneration for full-time holders of public office with effect from 1 July 2007.

Relocation Allowance

The Tribunal decided to increase the entitlement by 4.0% to $44,562.

Salary Packaging

The Tribunal determined that the amount of gross pre-tax salary that can be salary packaged be increased from 75% to 100%, to maintain consistency with the recent policy for non-executive staff of the ACT Public Service.

Motor Vehicles

The Tribunal noted that the motor vehicle entitlement for several full-time holders of public office is now covered by the Public Sector Management Standards and therefore the Tribunal is not required to make any determination in respect of this entitlement for those office holders to whom the provisions of the Public Sector management Standards apply.

3.2 The scheme is to be consistent with taxation laws and guidelines applicable to salary packaging schemes, issued by the Australian Taxation Office.

3.4 The scheme shall be operated and administered so that there will be no additional cost to the ACT Government. In particular, any fringe benefits tax associated with the provision of a benefit is to be included in the salary package.

3.5 The salary for superannuation purposes of each person holding a full-time public office is unaffected by participation in the salary packaging scheme.

4. Relocation Allowance

4.1 A reference in this clause to the ACT includes a reference to the surrounding district, including Queanbeyan.

4.2 Relocation allowance is an amount provided to assist an individual to relocate from a residence outside the ACT to a residence within the ACT. It is not intended that the allowance cover all costs in all circumstances.

4.2 Where a person holding an office mentioned in the table in Clause 1 above is relocated from a residence outside the ACT to a residence within the ACT, as a result of a fixed-term appointment or engagement, he or she shall be entitled to be reimbursed the actual, receipted, reasonable costs of relocating his or her residence to the ACT subject to the following conditions.

4.4 Total maximum amount under this provision shall not exceed $44,562. The maximum amount must not be exceeded unless the ACT Remuneration Tribunal agrees that there are unusual or exceptional circumstances prevailing, which are unforeseen or unable to be dealt with without exceeding the maximum relocation allowance.

4.5 Where a person holding an office mentioned in the table in Clause 1 above considers that unusual and exceptional circumstances exist in their relocation to the ACT, then they may request the ACT Remuneration Tribunal to consider the matter and determine whether the maximum allowance can be exceeded. In such circumstances the ACT Remuneration Tribunal will require the following information:

- details of the unusual or exceptional circumstances;
- details of the relocation;
- expenses incurred by the office holder;
- the expected total relocation expenses of the office holder;
- the level of assistance the office holder considers should be provided; and

4.6 This entitlement does not apply to any expenses incurred at the conclusion of employment.
