

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

Statement Number 201

President of the Court of Appeal

Background

Section 10 of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995 authorises the Tribunal to inquire into, and determine remuneration, allowances and other entitlements to be paid to the President of the Court of Appeal, that are in addition to any remuneration, allowances and entitlements as a resident judge or a judge of the Federal Court.

Remuneration for the President is that of a Federal Court Judge plus an additional allowance. This allowance has previously been determined by the Tribunal as 9.5% of the remuneration of a Federal Court Judge.

The Tribunal last reviewed the additional allowance for the President in September 2005, and issued Statement and Determination Number 186 dated 8 December 2005 following that review.

This latest inquiry, which sought submissions from interested parties, was notified in the press on 5 August 2006.

Submissions

Written submissions were received from the President and from the Government. Submissions were considered by the Tribunal at its meeting on 5 October 2006.

Tribunal Consideration

The Tribunal noted that the Commonwealth Remuneration Tribunal granted a 4.4% increase in the remuneration for the judiciary with effect from 1 July 2006.

The Tribunal determined that there should be no change to the existing arrangement and determined that the additional allowance for the President of the Court of Appeal should remain at 9.5% of the rate for a Federal Court Judge and, accordingly, increased the allowance to $29,165 per annum with effect on 1 November 2006.
