

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

Statement Number 160

President of the Court of Appeal

Background

Section 10(2) of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995 requires the Tribunal to inquire into, and determine, the remuneration and allowances to be paid, and other entitlements to be granted, to the President of the Court of Appeal.

Remuneration for the President is that of a Federal Court Judge plus an additional allowance. This allowance has previously been determined by the Tribunal as 9.5% of the remuneration of a Federal Court Judge.

The Tribunal last reviewed the additional allowance for the President in October 2003, and issued Statement and Determination Number 138 dated 18 December 2003 following that review.

Submissions

Written submissions were received from the President and from the Department of Justice and Community Safety and were considered by the Tribunal at its hearing on 22 October 2004.

Tribunal Consideration

The Tribunal noted that the Commonwealth Remuneration Tribunal granted an increase in the remuneration of Federal Court Judges with effect from 1 July 2004. This was the 5% foreshadowed in its 2002 review and 4% that included an economic adjustment.

The Tribunal determined that the additional allowance for the President should remain at 9.5% of the rate for a Federal Court Judge and accordingly increased the allowance to $26,835 per annum with effect from 1 November 2004.
