

Australian Capital Territory Remuneration Tribunal

ACT Magistrates Court Judicial Positions

Determination 8 of 2019

made under the
Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995, section 10 (Inquiries about holders of certain positions)

ACCOMPANYING STATEMENT

Background

Under section 10 of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995 (the Act), the Remuneration Tribunal (the Tribunal) must inquire into and determine the remuneration, allowances and other entitlements to be paid to the holders of Judicial positions mentioned in Schedule 1 of the Act, including the Chief Magistrate, Magistrates and Special Magistrates.

Considerations

The Tribunal's 2019 review of remuneration, allowances and other entitlements for the ACT Magistrates Court was advertised in August 2019. The Tribunal received submissions from the Chief Magistrate. The Chief Minister also provided a Government Submission. The Tribunal met on 20-21 October 2019 and this determination sets out the Tribunal's decision following the review.

The Tribunal considered the current remuneration, allowances and entitlements for the Chief Magistrate, Magistrates and Special Magistrates and looked at the remuneration and benefits paid to magistrates in other States and Territories. Acting Chief Magistrate Glenn Theakston and Magistrate Louise Taylor appeared before the Tribunal. Treasury officials provided a comprehensive briefing to the Tribunal on the prevailing economic circumstances for 2019 and forecasts for the coming years.

In making its decision, the Tribunal also considered the Government Submission and discussions with the Chief Minister and the Justice and Community Safety Directorate. The Tribunal also noted that Magistrates in the ACT continue to be the highest paid in the country.

In considering the appropriate level of any increase, the Tribunal has had regard to a range of economic factors and the previous increases applied to the holders of judicial positions and other statutory officer holders within the Tribunal's jurisdiction.

Decision

The Tribunal has decided to increase remuneration by 2.5% for ACT Magistrates Court judicial positions, with effect from 1 November 2019.
